2009 - 2010

Professional Development Series Registration Form

Cost and Rights

The full conference series fee is $4,500 for each member state. For this fee you will receive four NASDSE Professional Development Conferences with unlimited downlink sites, unlimited streaming media access, unlimited videotaping rights and unlimited rebroadcast rights for in-state educational, non-commercial use.

State Contact

The state contact person is your state's direct link to NASDSE and will be responsible for disseminating information within your state. A packet of support materials will be provided to your state contact approximately two weeks before each broadcast. Your state contact will also be listed on the NASDSE website for reference and state-specific questions. Please list your state's dissemination contact on this registration form. If the state dissemination contact and your state's finance office contact differ, please list both for our reference.
